

We are a licensed independent insurance agency authorized by selected insurance companies to solicit business on their behalf. As an independent insurance agent representing more than one company we are better able to assist you in finding the combination of coverage, price and service that meets your needs.

The insurance companies represented by Frees Insurance pay us a commission for placing your policy with us. We may also receive help from the insurance companies to pay for advertising and marketing designed to attract new customers.